Marines in Viet-Nam Will Shoot Back if Attacked, Rusk Says

Air Base Security Is Called Main Aim Of Two Battalions

By John M. Goshko
Washington Post Staff Writer
Secretary of State Dean Rusk made it clear yesterday that the 3500 United States Marines being sent to South Viet-Nam will "shoot back" if they are attacked by Viet Cong guerrillas.

However, Rusk also emphasized that the two battalions of Marines are going primarily to reinforce security at the Da Nang air base 350 miles north of Saigon. The base has been the principal source of the stepped-up U.S. aerial campaign against the guerrillas and targets in Communist North Viet-Nam.

The Issues Underlying U.S. Role in Viet-Nam

By Chalmers M. Roberts
Washington Post Staff Writer

The accelerating grim war in Viet-Nam has created concern and alarm throughout the world. Here is an attempt to clarify the issues behind it and the power struggle involved.

Q. Why is the United States in South Viet-Nam at all?

A. After France pulled out of Indochina in 1954 and South Viet-Nam became a separate nation under the Geneva agreement, the U.S. promised to help it become, in President Eisenhower's words, "a strong, viable state, capable of resisting attempted subversion or aggression through military means." At first the U.S. aid was largely economic but military help was increased by President Kennedy and accelerated by President Johnson as the Communists both within South Viet-Nam and from North Viet-Nam stepped up their military pressure to win control of the South.

Q. Is the war in the South a civil war between pro-

Bonn Offers Recognition To Israel

Arabs' Reaction To Surprise Move Still Uncertain

By Sterling G. Slappey
The Los Angeles Times

BONN, March 7—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard offered West German diplomatic recognition to Israel today in a sudden move.

The decision, it was learned, was taken by the Chancellor against the strongest advice of Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder.

It also came as a surprise to American, British and French diplomats.

Western envoys, along with Schroeder and at least half of Erhard's cabinet ministers, had been counseling a West German policy of moving cautiously and of taking no sudden steps that would further infuriate the Arab world. The United States has, however, always favored West German-Israeli relations.

Erhard late today ordered a special news conference at which his press secretary read

Tear Gas, Clubs Halt 600 in Selma March

State Troopers Beat and Injure Many Negroes

By Leon Daniel
SELMA, Ala., March 7 (UPI)—State troopers and mounted deputies bombarded 600 praying Negroes with tear gas today and then waded into them with clubs, whips and ropes, injuring scores.

The troopers and possemen, under Gov. George C. Wallace's orders to stop the Negroes "Walk for Freedom" from Selma to Montgomery, chased the screaming, bleed-marchers nearly a mile back to their church, clubbing them as they ran.

Ambulances screamed in relays between Good Samaritan Hospital and Brown's Chapel Church, carrying hysterical
