

E. Oral Presentation Score Sheet: Group One

Explaining the Problem

For each criterion listed, score Group One on a scale of 1–5, with 5 being the best score. (Use a different form for each group.) Use the Overall Oral Presentation Score Sheet to rate the portfolio presentation as a whole, to record the scores for each of the four groups, and to determine the grand total.

1 = Poor 2 = Fair 3 = Average 4 = Above Average 5 = Excellent

	SCORE	NOTES
1. SIGNIFICANCE: To what extent did the students select the most significant information related to their portfolio section to present?
2. UNDERSTANDING: To what extent did the students demonstrate an understanding of the nature and scope of the problem?
3. ARGUMENTATION: To what extent did the students make the case that the problem is significant? How well did they defend their position in the follow-up question period?
4. RESPONSIVENESS: To what extent were the students' answers appropriate to the follow-up questions?
5. GROUP COOPERATION/TEAMWORK: To what extent did most of the group members contribute to the presentation? Was shared responsibility evident? Did the students show respect for the opinions of others?

SCORE TOTAL
--------------------	--	--

JUDGE: _____ DATE: _____

E. Oral Presentation Score Sheet: Group Two

Examining Alternative Policies to Deal with the Problem

For each criterion listed, score Group Two on a scale of 1–5, with 5 being the best score. (Use a different form for each group.) Use the Overall Oral Presentation Score Sheet to rate the portfolio presentation as a whole, to record the scores for each of the four groups, and to determine the grand total.

1 = Poor 2 = Fair 3 = Average 4 = Above Average 5 = Excellent

	SCORE	NOTES
1. SIGNIFICANCE: To what extent did the students select the most significant information related to their portfolio section to present?
2. UNDERSTANDING: To what extent did the students demonstrate an understanding of the alternative policies they identified?
3. ARGUMENTATION: To what extent did the students explain the advantages and disadvantages of each policy presented? How well did the students support their explanations in answering the follow-up questions?
4. RESPONSIVENESS: To what extent were the students' answers appropriate to the follow-up questions?
5. GROUP COOPERATION/TEAMWORK: To what extent did most of the group members contribute to the presentation? Was shared responsibility evident? Did the students show respect for the opinions of others?

SCORE TOTAL
--------------------	--	--

JUDGE: _____ DATE: _____

E. Overall Oral Presentation Score Sheet

Teacher _____
 Class _____
 School _____

For each criterion listed, score the entire portfolio presentation on a scale of 1–5, with 5 being the best score.

1 = Poor 2 = Fair 3 = Average 4 = Above Average 5 = Excellent

	SCORE	NOTES
1. PERSUASIVENESS: To what extent did the presentation as a whole make a compelling case for the public policy suggested by the class?
2. PRACTICALITY: To what extent is the proposed policy realistic? To what extent are the approaches to gain support realistic? To what extent do the proposed policy and approaches for gaining support take into account real-world constraints?
3. COORDINATION: To what extent was the relationship between each of the four portfolio groups' performances clear? Did each presentation build and expand on the previous one(s)?
4. REFLECTION: To what extent did the presentation demonstrate that students carefully reflected upon their experience? To what extent did the presentation demonstrate that the students learned from the portfolio development experience?

Overall Presentation Score
 (Total of scores 1-4 above)

The scores from the four groups should be placed in the appropriate boxes and then added to the overall oral presentation score to produce a grand total.

Group One Score	Group Two Score	Group Three Score	Group Four Score	Overall Presentation Score	Grand Total

TIEBREAKER

Please award up to 100 points for this class's overall performance. These points will only be used in the event of a tie. Points should be awarded using the following scale:

Excellent	90 to 100 points
Very Good	80 to 89 points
Average	70 to 79 points
Below Average	0 to 69 points

JUDGE: _____ DATE: _____