FORM 5

GUIDELINES FOR INTRODUCING YOURSELF FOR INTERVIEWS

My name is (your name) I am a (grade level) student at (name of school) I am taking a (name of class) udying local problems, how they are dealt with by government, itizens can participate in their government.
		The proble	em I am studying is (briefly describe the problem)
am respo	onsible for finding out information about the problem to share with my class.
May I ask	you a few questions now, or is there another time that would be better for me to call?
s there ar	nother person I should call?
-	ve any printed information on the problem that you can send me? (If you are calling one and the answer is yes, be prepared to give the person the address of your school.)
ls this info	rmation available electronically by email or on a website?
How may	I access the information?		